TO: All Constituent Lodges in Colorado

Subject: Educational Grant Award

Brethren:

The Trustees of the Colorado Masons Benevolent Fund Association have approved a continuation of the Educational Grant Program for the year 2009. The rules are repeated below for your reference. The final application date of JUNE 30, 2009 IS ABSOLUTELY FIRM.

The RULES of the Educational Grant Program for 2009

1. The student selected must be a 2009 Colorado public high school graduate, who will attend a Colorado institution of higher learning.
2. The Colorado Masons Benevolent Fund Association will match one grant of a constituent lodge up to and including $500.00.
3. The check must be made payable jointly to the student and the school, e.g., John Doe and Adams State College.
4. The lodge will present the check to the student and the Benevolent Fund Office will reimburse the lodge.
5. Two copies of the attached application forms should be prepared and returned to the Grand Lodge Office with a postmark no later than June 30, 2009
6. The Grand Lodge Office will forward one copy of each application to the Benevolent Fund Office on a timely basis.
7. Any qualifying lodge which has mailed the application before June 30, 2009 and does not receive reimbursement by August 10, 2009 should contact the Grand Secretary immediately.
8. To keep the administrative cost of this program to a minimum, NO EXCEPTIONS to these rules can be considered.

Cordially and fraternally yours

Ernest W. Pyle
Grand Secretary
