

Ladies,

Please join us in January for some exciting events, friendship and fellowship.

On the late morning and early afternoon of Thursday, January 26, 2012, the ladies will attend a private Victorian "High Tea" (Victorian scones, fresh fruit, sandwiches and desserts) at the Molly Brown House in downtown Denver. This will include a delightful presentation on Victorian life styles and women's roles in early Colorado. Following the tea there will be a tour of the Molly Brown House. The price for this tour is $40.00. It is limited to two groups of twenty ladies each. The first group will leave from the DoubleTree Hotel at 11:00 A.M. The second group will leave from the Hotel at 1:00 P.M. Attendance at this function is on a first come first serve basis. Please RSVP to the Grand Lodge as soon as possible via fax (719-484-8993), e-mail (gloffice@coloradofreemasons.org) or by regular mail. Payment will be collected at the Hotel on Thursday.

A ladies hospitality room will be available for those waiting or not attending the tea. It is located in the Oak Room on the first floor of the Hotel. Vesper services for all attendees will be at 5:00 P.M. The Grand Master's Banquet (By Invitation Only-Formal Attire) will follow.

All ladies are welcome to join the public opening of the Grand Lodge on Friday, January 27th between 8:00 and 9:00 A.M. The ladies luncheon will again have a presentation from Joan Trainor, wife of Grand Musician John Trainor, on Victorian silver and German "high style" silverware. There will be door prizes. Be sure and bring your own silver items to show and tell. Jaon will also have other interesting tidbits of information on different silver styles. Attire for the ladies events on both Thursday and Friday is business casual.

Open installation of the 2012 Grand Lodge Officers will be at 4:30 P.M. followed by the All Masonic Banquet. Attire for the ladies is long or short cocktail dress or pantsuit.

On Saturday morning there will be a ladies breakfast. Please note this is a change of date from the original registration form. Plenty of time will be available to enjoy a leisurely meal and chat with friends old and new. Dress is casual attire.

I am looking forward to seeing all of you for a fun and entertaining weekend.

Warmest regards,

Pam Egan
